5th SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 02, 2010

UNDERSTANDING THE REVISED MASS TEXTS

The words we say at Mass are undergoing a revised translation. However, the flow of the Mass is not changing at all It will still take place in four parts: Introductory Rites, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, and Concluding Rites. In each part, many of those words will not change, but some of them will.

Sign of the Cross and Greeting: There is no change to the words or gesture for the Sign of the Cross. The words of the priest, "The Lord be with you." are not changing. The response, however, is changing, from, "And also with you," soon you will answer, "And with your spirit." This is a closer translation of the Latin, "Et cum spiritu tuo."

Penitential Act:

Current Translation

I confess to almighty God,
And to you, my brothers and Sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I failed to do;
and I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

New Translation

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord God.

The new translation does have us express more grandly the seriousness of our sin and the sincerity of our contrition. It offers a humbler way to collect ourselves before stepping any further into prayer.

Before the Penitential Act concludes, the priest proclaims an absolution—though this is not to be confused with the one he gives in the sacrament of Penance. The translation of this text is slightly different from what you hear today: "May almighty God have mercy on us / and lead us, with our sins forgiven, / to eternal life." Your response is the same: "Amen."

The Confiteor still concludes with the "Lord, have mercy," and you may still use "Kyrie, eleison" instead

Another option for the Penitential Act has not been used very much, and is undergoing a rather complete retranslation:

Current Translation

Priest: Lord, we have sinned against you: Lord, have mercy.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Lord, show us your mercy and love.

All: And grant us your salvation.

New Translation

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.

All: For we have sinned Against you.

Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

All: And grant us your salvation

Collect or Opening Prayer

The Introductory Rites conclude with the Collect, or the Opening Prayer of Mass. All the collects are being completely retranslated, and they will sound a little different to you. The sentences will be longer and more complex and may be difficult to follow at first.

However, over a short period of time you ear should tune in to the flow of the prayer and make it easier for your heart to join its intention. Understanding the Revised Mass Texts22010, Liturgy Training Publications, Pgs. 7-12 To be continued...

The Culture of Death: Its Leaders & Followers
"We are trying to overturn 2000 years of Christian tradition."
Derek Humphry, San Francisco Chronicle, '92.

Dr. Ezekiel Emmanuel, health policy advisor for the current administration and member of the Federal Council on Comparative Effectiveness Research, was quoted in 1996 as saying that medical benefits of government provided health care should not be given to "individuals who are irreversibly prevented from being or becoming participating citizens....An obvious examble is not guaranteeing health services to patients with dementia." In January of 2009, Emmanuel commented that, "Unlike allocations by sex or race, allocations by age is not invidious discrimination." Nat'l Right to Life Committee Nov./Dec 2009.

May 9th is the Day we dedicate to "Moms" in appreciation for their vocation and their sacrifices they make in their raising of children (and Husband's too). On this day we will have our annual Mother's Day Rose sale, which gives roses to Mom's and raises funds to support babies in need through local pregnancy centers and various safe houses for Mom's and babies. The rose bouquets will be assembled on Saturday, May 8th from 8:00 AM till 12:00 - 1:00 at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Montclair at the S/E corner of Central and Orchard St. We need volunteers to make the bouquets! MAY CROWNING & PRESENTATION OF FLOWERS

TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER

May 09th is Mother’s Day. Any parent wishing to have their child(ren) present flowers to our Blessed Mother, please sign up your child(ren) for the procession by May 05th, by calling Gloria Grant.

On May 09th, your child(ren) should be outside the church at 8:30AM with their flowers, before the 9:00AM Mass. The children with their flowers will process into the Church with the priest. Children should be dressed properly: dresses or skirts for girls below the knees (when sitting) and white shirts and dark trousers for boys (ties if possible). The children, who have made their First Holy Communion on May 08th, may wear their First Holy Communion clothing. Flowers need not be elaborate: simple flowers from the garden are a lovely gift to our Blessed Mother. Thank you.

2010 SPRING COMBINED COLLECTION

It is that time again to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters in Christ, by raising funds to support the four apostolates, Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Catholic Communication Campaign, Catholic Relief Services, and Peter’s Pence, in the Spring Combined Collection (SCC). The collection is scheduled to take place the weekend of May 15th -16th

EUCCHARISTIC MONTHLY ADORATION – MAY 06th

On Thurs., May 06th, San Secondo will have its monthly Adoration. Adoration hours are from 9:00 AM on Thurs. until 6:00 AM on Friday and it open to the entire parish. Sign-up boards are inside the back of the church. Draw closer to the Lord through this beautiful devotion. St. Augustine said “Our hearts were made for God and are restless until they rest in Him.” Like the deer that yearns for the “running streams”, our soul is always thirsty for the love of God.

The Sacred Host you see in the monstrance is Jesus, the Lamb of God, crying out again:

If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me,
let him drink who believes in Me.

Scripture has it: “From within Him rivers of living water shall flow”. (Jn. 7:7:37-39)

Come to Me in the Blessed Sacrament p.123.

It is the requirement of our Diocese for the safety of children that, while on church premises, all parents must supervise their children and know where their children are. Also, the parking lot and restrooms are open to all attending Mass and those just driving by. An Adult must accompany the child/children at all times through the parking lot or restrooms. Thank you for your cooperation for the safety of your children. God bless you.
