“The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral---a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby’s body.” –Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty

6th SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 09, 2010

“BEHOLD THY MOTHER”

Jesus gave His Mother to us as our mother also. Dying on the Cross, Jesus told St. John, standing there with His Blessed Mother, “Behold Thy Mother!” Throughout the more than twenty centuries our Catholic Church joyfully accepted Mary from Jesus, as, one of His most precious gifts.

One of the invocations in the Litany of the Blessed Mother speaks of her as “cause of our joy.” And indeed she is. She gave us Jesus who is our Savior. As our Savior He redeemed us from darkness and doom, and brought us hope and happiness here on earth, and far more important, eternal happiness and joy in the world to come.

I remember a sermon I heard long ago as a child. The priest spoke of the dimension of joy which Mary adds to our Church and to our spiritual life. “As a church composed of human people, what would we ever do if we had no mother?” he asked, “Had we not a Mother, we would be like a partially orphaned Church.” Human beings must have the joy of a mother. Therefore God gave us Mary, she completes the circle of our joy...

“May ALL Mothers enjoy their special day in union with the Blessed Mother in Her month of MAY! -Father Pokorny

To All Catholic Mothers

“We see in mothers...those who exert the earliest and the most intimate influences upon the souls of little ones and upon their growth in piety and virtue. We need not delay to remind you how important and how necessary is this work of education in the home, and how grave a mother’s obligation not to neglect it or perform it with indifference...surely no art is more difficult and strenuous than that of fashioning the souls of children; for those souls are so very tender, so easily disfigured through some thoughtless influence of wrong advice, so difficult to guide aright and so lightly led astray, more susceptible than wax...Fortunate the child whose mother stands by its cradle like a guardian angel to inspire and lead it in the path of goodness!...Such a sentiment in a woman and a mother gives her the right to that reverence and dignity which belong to a man’s loyal helpmate; such a mother is like a pillar, for she is the central support of the home; she is like a beacon whose light gives an example to the parish and brings illumination to the pious associations of which she is a member...Fathers and mothers, whose mutual love is sanctified by the faith of Christ, see that before your child is born you prepare a family atmosphere in which it may open its eyes to light and its soul to life, so that the good odor of Christ may linger about every step of its moral development.

Mothers, your sensibility is greater and your love more tender, and therefore you will keep a vigilant eye upon your babies throughout their infancy, watching over their growth and over the health of their little bodies, for this is flesh of your flesh and the fruit of your womb. Remember that your children are the adopted sons of God and specially beloved of Christ; remember that their angels look forever on the face of the heavenly Father; and so you too, as you rear them, must be angels in like manner, in all your care and vigilance in keeping your eyes fixed upon Heaven. It is your task from the cradle to begin their education in soul as well as in body; for if you do not educate them they will begin, for good or ill, to educate themselves.”

-Pope Pius XII, Allocution to Catholic Mothers, October 26, 1941

CORPUS CHRISTI

And having taken bread, he gave thanks and broke, and gave it to them saying, “This is my body, which is being given for you; do this in remembrance of me.” In like manner he took also the cup after the supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which shall be shed for you.”

John 6: 27
