CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 985-0205

A veteran researcher into post-abortion trauma, David Reardon, writes that some abortionists readily admit feelings of guilt. “I do feel you’re an abnormal person if you could really honestly say that abortion didn’t bother you at all,” said one abortionist he interviewed. “It goes against all things which are natural. It’s a termination of life, however you look at it.” LifeDate, Lutherans for Life newsletter, Spring 1998.

CENACLES OF LIFE

Come and join us inside the church, as we pray for the Right to Life for all children in the womb and to end abortion, on Wed. at 6:00PM.

ATTN: PARISHIONERS: Last week a car was broken into at the post office parking lot, and belongings were stolen. And twice in our church parking lot. This is the second time this has happened! As a reminder please DO NOT leave your personal belongings unattended!!!

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

JUNE 06, 2010

MEDITATION for Corpus Christi

“The immense blessings bestowed by the divine mercy upon the Christian people confer upon it an inestimable dignity. There is not, nor ever was, a nation so great that has gods so nigh as our God is present to us.

“For the only-begotten Son of God, wishing to make us partakers of His Divinity, took upon Himself our nature, that being made man, He might make men gods.

“And this Body that He took from us, He gave It wholly for our salvation. For He offered His own Body to God the Father upon the altar of the Cross as a Victim for our reconciliation, and He shed His own Blood both to redeem and cleanse us, that we, being bought back from a wretched slavery, might be washed from all our sins.

“And then, that the memory of so great a benefit might abide in us, He left His Body to be our Food and His Blood to be our Drink, to receive by the faithful under the species of bread and wine.

“O precious and wonderful Banquet, health-giving and full of all sweetness! What could be more precious than this Banquet, in which no longer, as under the law, the flesh of calves and goats is eaten, but Christ, the true God, is set before us that we may receive Him? What could be more wonderful than this Sacrament, in which bread and wine are substantially changed into the Body and Blood of Christ?

“And therefore Christ, perfect God and Man, is contained under the appearance of little bread and wine. He is eaten by the faithful, but not torn asunder; indeed when the sacrament is Divided He remains entire in each particle...

“Of all the sacraments none is more health-giving, for by It sins are washed away, virtues are increased, and the soul is fed with an abundance of all spiritual gifts. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, that all may profit by that which was instituted for the salvation of all.

“Lastly, no words suffice to describe the sweetness of this Sacrament, in which spiritual delights are tasted at their very source, and the exceeding charity of Christ in His Passion is called to mind.

“It was in order to impress more deeply upon the minds of the faithful the boundless extent of His charity that, when He had kept the Pasch with His disciples and was about to depart out of this world unto His Father, Christ instituted this Sacrament as a perpetual memorial of His Passion, the fulfillment of the ancient figures, the greatest of all His miracles. To those who grieved at His absence it was to be a special consolation.”

--St. Thomas Aquinas, 1274
