FEAST OF ALL SOULS

The holy pastor of Ars, St. John Vianney, the patron of parish priests, once said: “Oh, if it were but known how great is the power of the good souls in purgatory with the heart of God, and if we knew all the graces we can obtain through their intercession, they would not be so much forgotten. We must, therefore, pray much for them, that they may pray for us.”

These last words of St. John Vianney indicate the true manner of having recourse to the souls in Purgatory. We must assist them, to obtain their prayers and the effects of their gratitude in return.

We must pray much for them that they may pray much for us.

—Father F.X. Schouppe, S.J.

INDULGENCES For THE POOR SOULS

Current regulations in force by Pope Benedict V XI

I. On all the days from November 1 through November 8 inclusive, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed.

Conditions for both indulgences:

1. Only one plenary indulgence can be gained per day.

2. It is necessary to be in the state of grace, at least by completion of the work.

3. Freedom from attachment to sin, even venial sin, is necessary; otherwise the indulgence is only partial. (By this is meant attachment to a particular sin, not sin in general.)

4. Holy Communion must be received each time the indulgence is sought.

5. Prayers must be recited for the intentions of the Holy Father on each day the indulgence is sought. (No particular prayers are prescribed. One Our Father and one Hail Mary suffice, or other suitable prayers.)

6. A sacramental confession must be made within a week of completion of the prescribed work (One confession made during the week, made with the intention of gaining all the indulgences, suffices.)

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 985-0205

The SEED God plants: Can we conscientiously stand idly by

While babies are aborted and laws comply—

Babies, adoptive parents would gladly love,

Babies, sent for blessings God alone knows of?

This child may be your helper when you are old

Or bring blessings to the world a hundredfold..

Consider the Innocents that Harod slew—

This wicked slaughter of Innocents, will you renew?

Doctors, will you desecrate your God-given skill,

Take sacred life God gave FOR A BLOODY BILL?

Usurp not God’s rights to life. DO take Caution.

Take not a life, God gave, through an abortion.

That liberty and justice are not for all

Will go down in history, sad to recall.

It is our duty to set our morals straight.

Give this top priority this very date.

This grave injustice we should promptly redress

THAT AGAIN, OUR LAND, GOD MAY PROTECT AND

BLESS. —Sister Mary Gemma Brunke, S.C.

32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 7, 2010

“OUR FATHER who art in Heaven!

“Our Father who art in Heaven!” Oh, how beautiful it is, my children, to have a Father in Heaven! “Thy kingdom come.” If I make the good God reign in my heart, He will make me reign with Him in His glory. “Thy will be done.” There is nothing so sweet, and nothing so perfect, as to do the will of God. In order to do things well, we must do them as God wills, in all conformity with His designs. “Give us this day our daily bread.” We are composed of two parts, the soul and the body. We ask the good God to feed our poor body, and He answers by making the earth produce all that is necessary for our support. . .But we ask Him to feed our soul, which is the best part of ourselves; and the earth is too small to furnish enough to satisfy it; it hungers for God, and nothing but God can satisfy it. Therefore the good God thought He did not do too much in dwelling upon the earth and assuming a body, in order that this Body might become the Food of our souls. “My Flesh,” said Our Lord, “is meat indeed. . .The bread that I will give is my Flesh, for the life of the world.”

The bread of souls is in the tabernacle. The tabernacle is the storehouse of Christians. . . .Oh, how beautiful it is, my children! When the priest presents the Host, and shows it to you, your soul may say, “There is my food.” O my children, we are too blessed! . . .We shall never comprehend it till we are in Heaven. What a pity this is!

Faith and Finance with Phil Lenahan –

www.VeritasFinancialMinistries.com – Scriptures teaches us to have a cautious attitude toward debt. Proverbs 22:7 says, “The borrower is the slave of the lender.” If you have unproductive debt (especially credit card debt), does it make sense to consolidate multiple loans into one umbrella loan? While it depends on the loan terms, you might be surprised that frequently the answer is no.

If the proposed loan lowers interest rates substantively, keeps the repayment of unproductive debt short term, and doesn’t require a new collateral, such a consolidation may make sense. However, borrowers often choose to roll unproductive debt into their mortgage, either by refinancing or taking out a home equity loan. While borrowers are often pleasantly surprised when they see how much their monthly payment is reduced, they fail to consider that they just turned what should be a short term debt (5 years or less) into a very long term debt (up to 30 years).

In addition, loan consolidation allows borrowers to cover up financial problems rather than solve them. Many people who consolidate debts never change underlying behavior and continue to accumulate new unproductive debt.

Rather than deal only with the symptoms of unproductive debt. Stretched borrowers should focus like a laser beam on eliminating it as rapidly as possible. To do so requires changes in behavior involving sacrifices – including taking on additional work to increase income and reducing discretionary expenses until the unproductive debts are repaid. It’s painful in the short run, but leads to true financial freedom in the long term. God love you!
