Inexhaustible Treasures of Visits to the BLESSED SACRAMENT

Tabernacles are windows to the eternal thrones of Grace, where Jesus Christ, dispenses His favors, and bestows them on all who visit Him. Let us go to Him and tell Him, as the Kings of long ago, our needs, desires and wants with simplicity and confidence, and we shall be solaced.

Just one visit to the Blessed Sacrament often gives back calm and peace to the troubled soul. The soul had come to Him sorrowful and languished, and it returns full of consolations and of joy; it had come tepid, feeble, and full of distraction, and it returns warmed, encouraged, and recollected.

It would be impossible to express how many graces the soul receives in these holy visits. It is there that Jesus Christ accomplishes in a very special manner His promise, "Ask and you shall receive". (John 16:24).

There we obtain the illumination which enlightens, the divine function which touches, the grace which sanctifies, to such a degree that we may almost be sure of the salvation of a soul that is faithful in making visits every day to the Blesses Sacrament.

There, lastly, we obtain, besides grace for ourselves, grace for our neighbor, for our parish, for the Church, for the whole world, because the treasure of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament are inexhaustible.

--Father M. Harmon

Call for visits to the BLESSED Sacrament

Can it really be said in our fast paced society of today, that it is too much to ask Catholics to spend at least 15 minutes a day before the tabernacle to worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament?

In view of all that our Blessed Lord suffered for us, He is continually ignored and abandoned in the tabernacle. Let us all begin to take more seriously our obligation to console Jesus for the sins the world has committed and continue to commit against Him.

--Martin Acampora

ST. DOMINIC, PRIEST, PREACHER, DOMINICANS FOUNDER, SPAIN (1170-1221) – FEAST DAY AUGUST 8TH

While offering Mass in the presence of the King and Queen in London, Dominic went into ecstasy. When he was finally able to continue Mass, at the elevation of the Holy Eucharist, the people saw the Infant Jesus instead of the Host and the Mother of God surrounded by twelve Stars! When the chalice was raised they saw Christ on the Cross.
