CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 985-0205
As we mark the 38th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, the following quote aptly summarizes the feelings of those of us who fight for life: “I am bogged at how in one breath you can call killing a baby ‘murder’ and in the next breath you can justify this murder because you don’t want to tell others what to do. I cannot fathom how someone can say that life is precious and should be protected, then turn around and support ‘the choice’ to destroy that very life.” Brian Kemper of Stand True Ministries in The Southern Cross.

Reminder: PLEASE DO NOT TAKE THE PRAYER CARDS
Please do not take the prayer cards that have been placed inside the missalette books. They have been printed specifically for keeping inside the church for each missalette. Please think of others and leave the prayer cards so that everyone can pray from them. We will leave copies of the prayer cards printed on white copy paper in the metal stand in the back of the church. Please feel free to take these copies. Any folded prayer cards on the heavier grey stock paper need to remain in the church. Thank you and God Bless!

4th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
January 30, 2011

Give the Roses of your Life
A Sunday school teacher became deeply concerned for the conversion of a teenage girl in her class. Lovingly and earnestly she spoke to the girl on the all important subject—her soul’s salvation. The girl listened respectfully. However, she decided against Christ, saying that in later years she would give consideration to her relationship to Christ. The teacher went away with a sad heart. On her way home, she thought of a novel plan to impress on the girl the unfairness of giving her youthful years to the world, and perhaps even to sin, and then turning to Christ and giving him a scarred Life. Stopping at a florist’s shop, she bought a dozen roses. She kept the roses in the florist’s box for several days. Then she sent them to the girl, marking the package “Roses”. The girl was elated to receive the gift until she opened the box and found the faded and wilted flowers. “Some practical joke has been played on me,” she thought disgustedly. Shortly thereafter the teacher called on the girl again. The girl told her about the faded roses she had received. “I sent them,” said the teacher. “When you chose not to give Christ your youthful years, I felt as if you decided to present to Him later, a life faded and withered like those roses.” The girl, somewhat stunned, stood for some moments in deep thought. Then came her response: “Teacher, thank you, I see now clearly. It will not be as I said before. I will give myself to Christ right now and from this moment to the last, I will live for His glory.”

MODESTY IN GOD’S HOUSE
Dear Parents and Parishioners,
The fashions for this warmer weather are of grave danger to Christian modesty. I have noticed far too many mini-skirts (knees should be covered) and tight pants being worn by some when entering the church. Let us always remember that we are entering God’s House and we are in His True Presence. We are Christians in the Catholic Faith, followers of Christ, children of God and temples of the Holy Spirit. We are set apart by God’s saving grace. Let us always follow our Blessed Mother’s example and ask for her help. If we were to blend in with the pagan world, what type of witness would we be to our Baptismal promises? Our Lord says, “...and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind, and with thy whole strength.” (Mark 12:30). Dressing with these styles for warm weather are an offense to God and an occasion of sin to others. Let us give Glory to God in dressing modestly for Church, work, school and play. May God bless you! I love you and your salvation is my concern.

There will be a second collection for the DDF fund today. Our 2011 DDF goal is $51,000.00. Last Sunday, Fr. Marx took time to personally invite us to join him in supporting the 2011 Diocesan Development Fund. We would like to THANK the 103 families who made a one time gift donation or pledge. If you have not made a commitment for our 2011 DDF, please take an envelope home and prayerfully consider your gift amount. We have 900 Registered Families at our parish; we need everyone to participate so that others are not heavily burdened. Only with 100% participation can we attain our goal.
