THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

December 25th, 2011

Heart of Christmas

Every sincere Christian will make the song of the angels his own today: “Glory to God in the highest!”

Glory to God the Father who so loved us so much that He sent His only begotten Son to redeem us.

Glory to God the Son who elected to come among us in such lowliness and such poverty.

He could have been born of an Empress, but chose instead the lowly unknown Mary of Nazareth.

He could have been born in a marble palace and have a cradle of gold and precious stones, but he preferred a stable and the manger.

He could have demanded and received a royal welcome from the Rulers and Leaders of His people, instead, He was quite content to have the welcome of Mary and Joseph, together with a few humble shepherds.

Glory to God the Holy Ghost who cooperated in our redemption and continues to distribute the graces of that redemption to every individual of good will.

If we are sincere, then we will say a big “Thank You” to God on this day of days, and it will be a “Thank You” in deeds more than in words.

Christmas is a time of gift giving, and rightly so, for on that first Christmas mankind received its greatest gift from heaven, the Son of God Himself.

Let us make the first gift today, the offering of ourselves to God. The doors of Bethlehem were closed against Him—so let our hearts and our homes be open wide to Him today.

The stable which received Him has been honored ever since His birth, and will be held in veneration till the end of time. Our souls, too, will be honored not only till the end of time, but for all eternity if we receive Him and remain with Him for the few years He may deign to give us here below.

Let us offer Him our home; it may be poor, but true love of God will make it a heavenly palace, for where God abides there is no poverty.

Let us remember our neighbor today—Christmas is the feast day of all mankind—and if there is one among our acquaintances who has drifted away from God, let us try by prayer and advice to lead them, too, to the feet of Jesus, the Babe of Bethlehem. If we know of some neighbor who is in need of bodily necessities, let us share with them some of the little we have.

The Babe of Christmas will repay what we have shared a hundredfold!

--Father Kevin O’Sullivan, O.F.M
