SACRIFICIAL GIVING – Joseph’s obedience to God was not a one-time thing. His attention to the angel’s warning kept Jesus from being murdered by Herod and led to the fulfillment of the prophecy that the Messiah would be a Nazarean. Fidelity to God’s will assures the best use of my talents, too!

CHOOSE LIFE – Pregnancy Hot Line (909) 985-0205

Becoming a voice for the child in the womb, and for the embryonic human being at risk of becoming a mere object of research, and for the neglected sick and elderly is one of many ways we can teach our fellow citizen that “The Measure of Love is to Love Without Measure.” While critics want to portray the Church’s witness as a narrow and negative ideology, it is just the opposite: A positive vision of the dignity of each and every human being without exception, each loved equally by God and so equally deserving of our love and our nation’s respect. – Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston

SOLEMNITY: MARY, GOD’S HOLY MOTHER

January 1st, 2012

Christmas comes from Heaven

God became incarnate for us!
“Why?”

The Divine Word was made a man among us to assure us that in human history in our personal lives He is always present with His Love, with His saving grace, with His Providence.

The Nativity demands faith because the Nativity is a mystery. Our reason cannot comprehend how God was able to love us to such a great degree.

The sign of recognition for the shepherds was the manger in the stall where Mary Most Holy placed the Infant Jesus: a sign indeed, of extreme poverty and supreme humiliation. This event, so disconcerting, teaches us that to accept the message of Christ, humility of reason is necessary.

Only humility which becomes trust and adoration can understand and accept the salvific humiliation of God.

Let us return every day, therefore, to meditate on the Crib, and let us pray to Mary and St. Joseph to give us the grace of adoring humility and faith.

--Pope John Paul II

Thoughtful Poverty

Some weeks back I heard that there was a family who had not eaten for some days—a Hindu family, to be exact—so concerned, I was moved to do what I could and I took some rice that I had available and took it to the family.

I had hardly given it to the mother when she quickly divided the rice into another container, dividing it into two equal portions, and then, asked me to wait and quickly excused herself saying she would quickly return from a visit to her next door neighbor, who happened to be a Moslem family, I later learned.

When she had returned as promised, I remarked to her, “You now have very little for your family, now that you have given half of what I gave you away and you have ten mouths to feed on such a little amount that is left.”

She shrugged her shoulders and simply said: “They haven’t eaten either.”

She then thanked me again for the food and excused herself to go and feed her family.

This is greatness. --Mother Teresa

NEW YEAR BLESSING FROM MOTHER MARY

May the light of the Countenance of my Little Child ever shine upon thee... May His Sacred Heart be thy refuge when beset by temptations and afflictions, and mayest thou enter it through the pierced Heart of thy Queen and Mother. Be thy last hour, thy best hour, and may the Names of Jesus and Mary seal thy lips till thou meetest us in eternity! –Blessed Mother. Help me Sweet Mother!

REMEMBERING OUR UNBORN

Will you pray for me everyday?

“I have no voice to speak or defend myself. I cannot even pray. I need you as an advocate to intercede for me to the Lord and Giver of Life. Will you give just 15 seconds of your time to pray for me? This is the plan: at each meal, when the blessing is asked, will you pray just one “Hail Mary” for the right to life of children in the womb? Wow! 15 seconds, 1—Hail Mary X the number of members in your family, X everyone in this parish = thousands of prayers just for me.” Life is precious!
